

REDEFINING MOBILE RESCUE

VIGILINT's Rescue Specialist (RS)

Teams deliver elite Personnel Recovery (PR) and Casualty Evacuation (CASEVAC) capabilities in support of both civilian and government operations, executing day or night missions across any environment.

RESCUE SPECIALISTS

THE TEAM

- 2x Special Operations Medics OR
- 1x Critical Care Nurse and 1x Special Operations Medic

CAPABILITIES

- Extrication
- Vehicles, Buildings, & Confined Spaces
- Land, Water, and Dense Terrain
- Care and Transport of Critically Injured Patients
- Day and Night Operations
- Platform Agnostic

SETTING THE STANDARD FOR RESCUE SERVICES

Our Rescue Specialist are highly experienced and qualified professionals that adapt their solutions to meet the operational requirements, security threat, and patient load. They provide medical care in tactical conditions and en route, to include pain control, airway management and minor surgical procedures. Additionally, Rescue Specialists have the tools and expertise to perform vehicle extrication and high/low angle rescue, hoist operations, and other combat rescue services. Our teams are flexible, efficient and determined to meet mission objectives.

FULLY PLATFORM AGNOSTIC

We seamlessly integrate with any air or ground platform provided by the client.

WE STAND MISSION-READY

To recover, treat, and transport critically injured patients around the world.

EACH RS TEAM MEMBER

Is Special Operations Medic qualified with advanced certifications and extensive field experience.

CAPABILITIES INCLUDE

Hoist and high-angle rescue, vehicle, debris, collapsed structure, and confined-space extractions, as well as water and swift-water rescue operations.